SCHOOL ENROLLMENT IS THE LARGEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Many Rooms in Grades Are Now Crowded To Capacity

HIGH SCHOOL NOW AT LIMIT

Charleroi's public schools have the largest enrollment in their history, according to figures submitted to Superintendent Pollock by the principals of the various schools of the borough. The figures up to Friday evening are as follows:

Fifth street school, enrollment 555 an average of 46 pupils to each teacher.

Second street school, enrollment 373, an average of 47 pupils to each teacher.

Ninth street school, enrollment 669 pupils, an average of 48 pupils to each teacher.

Crest avenue school, enrollment 395, an average of 50 pupils to each teacher.

Junior High enrollment 238, or an average of 35 pupils to each teacher.

High School, enrollment 373, an average of 25 pupils to each teacher.

In the grades most of the rooms are crowded beyond the limit recommended by the state, and some of the rooms are filled beyond their real capacity. This condition is likely to become more acute before the season is over, as there are quite a number of pupils who have not yet reported. These pupils are being checked up, and next week the truant officer will be started on his rounds, to inform parents that children must be sent to school.

In the High School the number of pupils to each room is at the limit, as the state standards are from 15 to 25 pupils in each room. Any additional enrollment in this division will increase the average for the rooms beyond the state recommendation.

Under the school law, children between 14 and 16 years of age and who are working on general working certificates, are required to attend school eight hours each week. It is the purpose of Superintendent Pollock to begin the continuation school on the 20th of the month, or one week from next Monday. All those who are now working on certificates must then arrange their work to be at school the required number of hours each week, or give a reasonable excuse.

As shown by the enrollment the school facilities of the borough are now occupied to the limit, and any further increase in pupils will have to be met by additional facilities, either by new buildings or by rented quarters.

Eugene Morean of Oakland avenue, who is employed by Reagan & Hormell is now a patient at the Mercy hospital. Mr. Morean while working, fell, breaking his arm in several places.

CANNOT PRESCRIBE FOR THEMSELVES

Physicians are forbidden to prescribe whiskey for themselves even though they are sick, under a new ruling of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, issued on Thursday. Instructions to this effect have been sent to prohibition directors. Druggists are told to refuse to fill such prescriptions. So if a doctor feels the need of a bracer he will have to rely on a brother practioner to prescribe for him, or use a part of the six quarts a year he may have in his office to administer to patients

LOCAL EXPOSITION SPLENDID SUCCESS

With a total attendance of at least eight thousand visitors, the local agricultural and fashion show promoted and held under the auspices of the Board of Trade, ended Friday evening. That it was an unqualified success is the verdict of all those who attended, and it promises to be an annual feature in the affairs of Charleroi.

The underaking was projected last spring, when at the suggestion of Mr. Darby and seconded by Mr. Schafer the Board of Trade appointed committees to promote such an exposition. Various meetings were held from time to time and all details carefully worked out, so that when the date of the exhibition arrived it was only a matter of getting the exhibits arranged for the display. Farmers, local gardeners, business men and citizens generally, entered into the spirit of the affair, and the result was more than the promoters hoped for.

Today Mr. Darby is busy with a corps of assistants in sending out checks to prize winners, and this work will be completed likely this afternoon. A great many details remain to be cared for in connection with the exposition, but they will all be atended to in due time.

Before the close of the exhibition last evening remarks were made on behalf of the Board of Trade by Prof. I T. Daniel and John W. Berryman. Both speakers thanked the exhibitors and citizens generally for the splendid support given, and particularly were the farmers mentioned, with special mention of Mrs. Smith Colvin, who was instrumental in having so many of the farmers of the adjoining country district take part in the affair.

Next year it is hoped to have larger quarters for the display and it was suggested that the borough hall, third floor of the borough building, be made ready for such an occasion. It was pointed out that if council would place the stairways a subscription would be taken among the ctiens of the community to put down the floor. Some action along this line is apt to be taken.

Mr. Berryman in his address called attention to the display of quilts

Complain That New Road Is Being Used as Speedway

With the opening of the new concrete road between Donora and Monongahela a few days ago an important link in the improved highway of the Monongahela valley for a direct route to Pittsburg was completed, and thousands of autoists have already passed over the road during the week.

However, with the opening of the highway numerous complaints have been received that autoists are using the road as a speedway, and although no serious accidents have been reported as yet, many narrow escapes are said to have taken place, and several auto drivers have been forced on to the street car tracks by the speed demons who delight in testing out their cars or in "burning up the road." Residents along the highway who are compelled to use it coming and going to work, have reported that time after time they have had miraculous escapes from death when the race fiends have come suddenly upon them, even failing to give warning by sounding their horns The road is 16 feet wide, but it is scarcely wide enough for those who wish to make a race track out of it, and unless officials take steps to put stop to this speeding a serious accident may result.

ARE NEGLIGENT IN MAKING TRANSFERS

The Automobile Division of the State Highway Department finds that a great many persons disposing of their automobiles fail to make out the necessary vendor affidavits which according to law, must be delivered to the purchaser. The latter not having the affidavit is unable to register his car with the State Highway Department, even though the purchaser files with the Automobile Division the necessary vendee affidavit covering acquisition of the car.

The same conditions exists, the department finds, where a dealer takes a second hand car in trade, the dealer failing to get the vendor affidavit from the seller and in a number of cases the dealer failing to file the vendee affidavit with the fee of $2.50 with the proper department.

The Registrar of the Automobile Division said:—"Some dealers think that because they have a second-hand dealers' license it is not necessary to file vendor and vendee affidavits when they get possession of a second-hand motor vehicle. The department is making a vigorous campaign on this violation of the automobile law and many informations are being made before magistrates. The failure of the vendor to suppiy the necessary affidavits to the vendee is punishable by a fine of $100 to $200 or imprisonment for three to six months. Failure of the vendee to file the vendee affidavit is punishable by a fine of $300 to $1,000, or imprisonment for one to three years."

OPERATORS ACT TO PREVENT FUEL FAMINE

Concerted action was taken by the coal operators of the Pittsburg district on Wednesday to prevent a domestic coal shortage in this section during the coming winter. The Pittburg Coal Producer's Association is taking the initiative in the movement, holding a meeting on Wednesday and outling plans for its campaign.

A committee was appointed by the association to decide on the necessary steps to be taken in supplying the domestic demand and reaching those sections difficult of accessibility. Last winter considerable suffering was experienced by families all over Western Pennsylvania, and it is to prevent a repetition of this that the operators are taking the matter into their own hands. This is believed to be the first time that coal operators have taken such action.

The activity of the operators in the matter is born of humanitarian purposes. Last winter there were families living in remote sections of the Pittsburg distrct who could not get coal at all, and as a result suffered sickness and much discomfort. If the operators find it possible to prevent it this will not happen again.

TROUBLE MAKERS GET INTO TROUBLE

John Lind and William Nickelson, both aged 25, and employed by the Monongahela Railway company, on a work train, were arrested Thursday morning by the railroad police charged with having tried to incite trouble among the other laborers; also on the charge of disorderly conduct. According to the foreman of the work train Lind had quit and left the crew Wednesday afternoon, and early Thursday morning had returned, demanding his money. The foreman, it seems did not comply with his wishes. Lind was not long in finding a sympathizer in the person of Nickelson, both arying to induce the other men to walk awa yfrom the work train, unless Lind's demands for his pay were complied with

M'DONALD MAN IS GIVEN A TERM TO THE PENITENTIARY

Had Shot and Killed Friend in Store Following Carousal

WITHDRAW PLEA FOR NEW TRIAL

Ernest Chambon, a well known young business man of McDonald, was on Friday afternoon sentenced by Judge George A. Baldwin of Beaver county, specially sitting in quarter sessions court at Washington, from one year and six months to two years and six months in the western penitentiary. Chambon was convicted at the May term of criminal court, before Judge Baldwin, of voluntary manslaughter. His counsel, immediately following the verdict, gave notice of a motion for a new trial, filing the same within the required time, and since then Chambon has been out on bail.

When the case was called Friday afternoon, Attorney Norman E. Clark one of the counhel for Chambon, filed a formal motion for the withdrawal of a motion for a new trial, which was granted by the court.

Mr. Chambon was then called before the bar andDistrict Attorney Erwin Cummins moved for judgment. Judge Baldwin asked the defendant if he had anything to say as to why sentence should not be pronounced. He replied that he had not. Attorney Clark made a plea for leniency, stating that Chambon was born and reared in the McDonald district, had never been in trouble before, and said that he was a successful business man, connected with one of the best families in McDonald.

Judge Baldwin, in passing sentence, among other things said that the jury evidently believed some of the testimony given in the defense, otherwise it would have given a verdict of murder in the second degree, or probably first degree murder.

Chambon took his sentence very calmly, but as his counsel stated he felt his position very keenly, and realized that drink had been his undoing.

Mr. Chambon shot and killed Ralph Lytle a young man in Mr. Chambon's store, late Saturday night April 20, 1914. The shooting followed a carousal of some young men in the Chambon storee. Stories as to what happened prior to the shooting were contracditory. It was known there was drinking there. On account of the parties connected with the affair being so well known the case attracted a great deal of attention.

INVESTIGATE DEATH OF OLIVE THOMAS

French police have begun a thorough investigation into the death of Olive Thomas, American motion picture actress, who died in Paris on Friday morning from the effects of a poison said to have been taken in mistake for a sleeping powder. The authorities have issued a permit for the body to be embalmed but have not yet agreed to the shipment of the remains to New York on the Mauretania, which sails from Cherbourg on the 18th inst.

Investigation is also being made by the police of rumors of cocaine orgies intermingled with champagne dinners, which lasted until early hours of the morning that have been afloat in the American colony and among the habitues of the cinema world during the past week.

Olive Thomas is well remembered by many of the people of Charleroi, and while the family moved away from here some years ago, her career as a movie actress was always followed with the greatest interest by people of this community.

THROWING MUD

The New York Journal of Commerce, which labels itself as an independent, but which has given every evidence for the past few years of being Democratic, is to be commended for its criticism of Governor Cox's "proofs" of a gigantic "slush" fund being raised by the Republican party. The Journal of Commerce does not swallow the "proofs" as avidly as does Frank Cobb, of the New York World, a paper which was pledged by the late Joseph Pulitzer "always to fight demagogues of all parties." "Firmly and positively, it is likely, will the electorate refuse to permit the red herring to be drawn across the political trail in this campaign," says the Journal of Commerce. "There are important issues to be settled. It wants to hear the candidates discuss them. The public does not want to hear this sort of stuff. The progress of the present campaign is emphasizing the disgust that many men are feeling with present tendencies in American politics." Considering the conservatism of the paper, that is a smart rap on the head of the Tammany candidate. In this connection it is to be noted that the New York Times (Dem.) seems also to be somewhat out of patience with the antics of the Democratic candidate. The feeling is pervasive that Cox has sought by resort to a campaign of mud-slinging to distract public attention from the fact that as a historian he is an ignoramus ,and as a statesman he is a pitiful false alarm. After over a month of campaigning he has yet to give evidence of possessing a solitary brain-cell of constructivism. As the late Tom Reed would express it: "Every time he opens his mouth he subtracts from the sum total of human knowledge."

OUR SATESMEN IN JAPAN

Those American statesmen who, with their families are touring the Far East in a Government ship have not kept the cables hot or written bulky letters giving their impressions for publication. Possibly the cost or the labor tends to check them at a time when they are paying out of their own pockets $1.50 a day for their meals in order to make a first-hand investigation of Oriental problems. However that may be,they have just been heard from for the first time. The somewhat surprising news comes that they insisted on visiting Korea against the wishes of the Japanese. Korea is a convert to the doctrine of the self-determination of small peoples and in consequence is not on the best of terms with its imperial over-lord, Japan. Naturally the Japanese did not welcome an investigating junket by American Congressmen and, in order to stave it off, even went so far as to warn the intending visitors that Korea brimmed over with Asiatic cholera.

Nevertheless our devoted Congressmen ignored the very broad hint, heroically braved the danger of pestilence, went where they were not wanted, and then were followed about by Korean revolutionists who begged them to accept petitions asking for the aid of the United States in throwing off the yoke of Japan. It may be that our traveling Solons then realized their mistake and began to weigh their words and otherwise become discreet. No doubt they will get some illuminating views on Article X of the eague of Nations or the terms of which, if we were a member, we would be compelled to assist Japan in holding the Koreans.

THE BATHING BEACH

During the past few days the Charleroi Bathing Beach has been dismantled for the season, and the equipment and parphernalia stored for the winter. The season is over, and the opportunity afforded for the past three months for river bathing has ended for the time being. It will be many months before we again have the privilege of the outdoor recreation, and which so many of our people enjoyed during the summer, now rapidly passing.

The Bathing Beach is an institution which has given the people of Charleroi a splendid lot of enjoyment. It has been free practically to all those who desired to avail themselves of its facilities, and moreover, it has been under splendid supervision. Only one accident has happened in all the years of its existence, and this one accident while greatly deplored, appeared to be unavoidable, and of which the management was ignorant of until several hours after it happened. The Beach should have some encouragement from the borough authorities, for it is a recreation that has proven its worth to the community and it should be fostered.

ARE THEY?

The announcement of Internal Revenue Collector Curtis Gregg Lewellyn that a relentless warfare is to be waged upon the 7,000 alleged income tax dodgers and evaders of special taxes, is interesting and of course, timely as proof of the zeal and indefatigableness of the Democratic Administration in searching out and punishing all wicked and designing offenders against the revenue laws, says the Connellsville Courier.

But vastly more to the point, and much more interesting, and quite as timely, would it be to have official information as to the time when the "raiders" of the bonded warehouses and other violators of the Volstead Act are to be brought to justice.

Many months have elapsed since the "mysterious disappearance" began, but the curiosity of an expectant public has not abated, particularly in view of the solemn assertion earlier given that the perpetrators of these "raids" were to be run to earth with a ruthlessness in comparison with which the operations of the Hun U-boats would appear as gentle pastime.

Is it possible that the exigencies of politics require that this group of patriots continue to be "kept out of war?"

LIBERTYS AT PAR

Liberty bonds are selling at something more than 80 cents on the dollar.

They are at this discount because the Administration refused to accept the advice of those voiced in the workings of finance and insisted on floating the bonds at too low an interest rate—making the terms too long and not providing for conversion The interest rate, it was said, didn't matter: people would buy them anyway. Of course they would and did, and they always will respond to any call the government may make on their patriotism. But selling bonds and maintaining the price are different things, and Mr. McAdoo and his associates were apparently not concerned about what happened to holders of Libertys after they had bought the bonds.

There is no reason for holders to get discouraged. The bonds will rise to par some time—after we get an administration that will exercise reasonable economy in government. It may be a long time before Libertys sell at 100. but the turn will come before many months—say about Election Night.—New York Tribune.

Mr. Moore, who went to Chicago to appear before the Senate investigation committee to tell about the Republican "slush" fund of which Mr. Cox speaks so glibly, said he brought no testimony with him. However, he was willing to tell the committee where it could get some "leads." Mr. Moore was Mr. Cox's campaign manager prior to the nomination, but evidently Mr. Cox was not trusting him with any "information" about the sinister influences which are going to buy and "underhold on the Presidency." Mr. Cox wants the material for campaign thunder.

WHAT RIFES US

The Federal Reserve Board has issued a denial of the charge that it has undertaken to classify any business as essential or non-essential. But the Board can not deny that it has found the business of making Governor Cox the next President to be essential to the partisan members who control it, thus prostituting a powerful Government organization to political chicanery. That is what a lot of Americans are sore about.

DIPLOMATIC DELAY

The State Department refuses to divulge the latest Polish note, merely stating that it is "not disappointing." It is surmised that Poland's answer to Colby makes stipulations which that astute politician can not condemn without incurring the displeasure of the Polish Americans, for whose vote the Democrats are desperately angling. After November 2nd we may be informed of the contents of the note.

BARN DESTROYED DURING HEAVY STORM

During a heavy rain and electrical storm which swept over the Elizabeth section on Monday evening last, the barn on the farm of James McClure in Forward township, Allegheny county, was struck by lightning and with its contents completely destroyed. Mr. McClure had just finished threshing and the family was at supper when the bolt struck. Though the men present went at once to the barn they only succeeded in getting the live stock out.

The barn was a frame structure, 40x90 feet, and in addition to the wheat and oats crop that had just been threshed, and the hay of this year's crop, there were 40 tons of baled straw from last year's crop, an up-to-date threshing machine purchased last year, and a number of vehicles and farm emplements. The loss is estimated at $14,000, which is covered by insurance.

CHINAMAN HOLDS BEAUTIFUL WHITE GIRL UNDER STRANGE SPELL

Wierd Story of Oriental Mysticism and Treachery Revealed in "The River's End" by James Oliver Curwood

There is a strange tale of Oriental mysticism in "The River's End," that will both startle and fascinate. This picture from the book of Jas. Oliver Curwood, author of 'Back to God's Country" will be shown at the Majestic Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Shan Tung, the Chinese, is a prince in disguise. Driven from his own country by political factions he settles in Northwest Canada on the edge of sivilization, where he keeps an opium den and traffics in vice.

And Shan Tung, because of his wealth is a power in the community. He falls in love with a beautiful white girl and demands that she marry him. She loaths him and is horrified. Yet she apparently is powerless to cope with his will.

She appeals to an officer of the Royal Mounted to help her free herself from his influence but she withholds some secret from him, evidently fearing to reveal it.

The Chinese is getting more and more of a hold on her when the officer of police visits the den on Shan Tung's command. And Shan Tung openly demands that he be a party to the deliverance of the white girl to him.

But the officer is not the craven Shan Tung thought. There is a terrific battle in the opium den, which is finally set afire and burned. What happens to this officer and the white girl is something you will want to see. 83-t1

MANY NEW PEOPLE SEEK UNITED STATES

Immigration is increasing by leaps and bounds with indications that the pre-war record will be equalled this year, according to Anthony Caminetta, commissioner general of immigration who said on Friday that the rush had become so great at New York as to make it impossible for the officials to properly handle the people, because of insufficient forces and facilities. The situation at Ellis Island is very congested and at present a number of vessels are anchored in the stream waiting to discharge immigrants.

One of the great problems growing out of the rapidly increasing immigration is the desire of the new arrivals to seek the industrial centers. The rural districts in the ten years preceding the war claimed more than a majority of the newcomers. This new desire has tended to increase the housing problems in many of the large cities, which are already deficient in homes for their present inhabitants. The farming sections are not being sought and are left without needed labor.

RIVERS GROWING IN IMPORTANCE

That the rivers in general, and the Monongahela river in particular, are looked upon as being of great importance these days is found in expressions of opinion by various newspapers in the larger cities of the country. One of the latest of these is from the Cleveland Plain Dealer which says:

"It becomes increasingly apparent that the transportation paralysis of the United States is in large part attributed to the developmeints of the natural waterways. At no point is this more clearly indicated than at Pittsburg, the natural center of the iron and steel industry. The extensive use of the Monongahela is cited as positive proof that the important industries of that center would have been tied up for lack of coal had rail carriage been entirely relied upon. This contention is not made alone for the past few months during which freight embargoes have been most common, but is said to apply to the war period as well. The water carriers of the Pittsburg district will handle something like 21,000,000 tons of traffic this year. Yet they receive no appreciable assistance from the government in keeping the channels open and there is no program for future development.

MODERN METHODS TO HANDLE COAL

Rivermen are taking the keenest interest in the plans of the H. C. Frick Coke company, the fuel producing corporation of the United States Steel Corporation, and which is furnishing the coal for the big by-product coke plant at Clairton. The improvements under way at mines in the upper pools of the Monongahela river, when completed, will completely revolutionize the coal transportation and loading business in the valley. The latest and most complete appliances are being installed, so that when all is completed a steamer may, if it is required, place an empty tow of barges under a tipple and have it loaded in little less than an hour. By means of belt conveyers now being installed it will be possible to deliver coal as fast as barges can be placed, and make it possible for the Carnegie line steamers to be kept busy in the towing trade every minute of the day. A new hoist now being installed at Clairton is designed to unload a barge every day.

A few days ago the Ronco mine placed 3,000 bushels of coal in the bunkers of the steamer William Whigham in nine minutes, which is certainly quick work.

and said that quilting had become almost a lost art in American homes. He suggested that next year it was possible that a special prize would be given or quilts made between this date and the date of the opening of the next exposition.

The promoters of the exhibition have learned much from their experience of the past few days and this knowledge will be utilized in th next show for the benefit of the people. They do not claim that conditions were perfect, but they hope to profit by the suggestions made and in the coming year give an exposition far superior to the one held during the past few days.

A list of the prize winners is being made up by the general committee, and as soon as it is ready the Mail will publish it, possibly early in the coming week.

MONESSEN ELKS ARE HOLDING CORN ROAST

This is a gala day for the Monessen Lodge of Elks and their friends, who are holding an outing on the Nash farm, along the West Newton road, where they are enjoying their annual corn roast. The social committee in charge of the affair has arranged a fine program for the occasion, which includes four good boxing bouts, the main feature of which will be a bout between Steve Carter and Tommy Phillips.

The affairs started this afternoon, and will continue until late this evening, with something doing every minute. This is the one Big affair of the Monessen Elks for the year, and it is expected that every member of the Lodge, as well as members from other Lodges in this vicinity will be present to take part in the festivities.

MAKE REDUCTION FOR PENSION FUND

It was learned on Friday that government employes engaged on locks and dams in the Pittsburg district received their pay for August on the ninth of September, with a deduction, of 2 1-2 per cent from their salaries, ranging in amounts from $2.50 to $2.63 per month for the pension fund. It is claimed that this is an injustice to the workers as it is impossible to pay the monthly bills in time to receive the benefit of the discount offered for the prompt payment of bills. The deduction from wages also caused considerable discontent and it is rumored that a number of employes are contemplating resigning.

When Col. Otwell was at Lock Four a short time ago he promised the employes that checks would be sent out before the 10th. This promise, the men say, was not fulfilled.

The Western Sea.

The Pacific, a calm, cold ocean not much fretted by traffic, adds its curious note of aloofness. It sends forth fogs, but somehow they carry no hint of salt. And in days of sunshine when it sparkles sapphire blue it seems somehow to exhale no breath. You never "smell the sea" as by the Atlantic's verge, and, though you well know that rotting seaweed gives forth that odor, you miss it on this western shore. The oceans you have known seem playful children, by turns gay and irritable, by comparison with this monstrous, lovely, inhuman sea.—Harrison Rhodes in Harper's Magazine.

Took a Peek Before Answering.

At the time of tests in the schools the small fry were very busy discussing how "awful hard" the questions were and wrinkling their brows in anxiety as to whether they'd passed. There is a humorous side to the matter, however. One small girl reported that she knew she had her first question answered correctly. "How are you so sure?" inquired mother. "Well, it was to name 25 birds and, as the teacher left the bird chart open at that place, it was easy," the naive reply.—Springfield Union

Average Duration of Life.

Good authorities give the average duration of human life as about thirty-three years. One quarter of the people on the earth die before the age of six, one-half before the age of sixteen, and only about one person of each 100 born lives to the age of sixty-five. The deaths are calculated at sixty-seven a minute, 97,700 a day and 35,639,835 a year. Births are calculated at about seventy a minute, 100,800 a day and 36,792,000 a year.

Aluminum in the Kitchen.

In a series of tests of aluminum cooking utensils to see how various foods affect them, Prof. John Glaister of Glasgow university, has found that the only substances which attack aluminum surface are oranges, lemons, Brussels sprouts and tomatoes But even in these cases the quantity of aluminum dissolved was so slight that it could have no effect whatever on the flavor of the food.

Not a Continuous Quarrel.

The little girl next door had come over to play with Goldie and, as usual, they were soon quarreling. Aunty was vexed at leaving her work to restore peace and angrily exclaimed: "I don't see why you want to play together when you do nothing but quarrel all day long!" "We don't quarrel all day long, we has hours of recesses in between scraps," earnestly corrected Goldie.

Dreaming of Hats.

To dream of wearing a hat that fits you and pleases you is a sure sign of happiness and business success. If you have on one that is torn or mud-spattered it means there is trouble for you that reflects on your honor. A straw hat points to an increase of knowledge on your part: a hat of velvet or velom to an increase of fortune. —Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Are You Fond of Hiking?

We are told that there is an old Greek legend that Eudides, several centuries before the time of Christ, in Attica, established a pedestrian record that has never since been beaten. Eudides was a messenger who, being sent from Athens to bring some holy fire from Delphos, made the journey there and back—125 miles in all—on the same day.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month, that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles, and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MINNIE MANDELKO. 1005 S. 18th St. & 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Mandelko was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Those who need special advice may write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. These letters will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THIEVES STRIP WOMAN'S ORCHARD

Sneak thieves of a peculiarly mean type are plying their trade in South Strabane Township, near Washington. Two weeks ago they visited the pear orchard of Mrs. J. N. Horn, who lives by herself, and stripped the trees of pears, not only taking all the fruit, but seriously damaging the trees. Friday afternoon in broad daylight the place was again visited, and this time all the peaches that could be reached from the ground or secured by breaking down the limbs were taken. The two visits about cleaned out Mrs. Horn's crop of peaches and pears.

Just a short time previously a neighbor of Mrs. Horn was paid a visit and out of a flock of 100 spring chickens all but 16 were taken. The thieves traveled in a Ford car and were seen putting the chickens in bags by an old man, a neighbor, who was unable to do anything to prevent the theft. The car came to the farms from the direction of Washington a nd returned the same way.

Fallen King's Pet a Spider.

King Christian II of Denmark, nicknamed the Nero of the North, was taken prisoner in 1531 by Frederick I, who had been chosen king in his place. In his cell he contracted a friendship with a spider. This creature knew the sound of his voice, came when called and ate out of his hand. But the jailer, merely to deprive the fallen king of a pleasure, killed the spider.

Medicine in the Form of Cake.

The Journal of the American Medical Association recommends a laxative fruit cake made of equal parts of senna leaves, figs, dates, prunes and raisins. It does not matter much whether the ingredients be weighed or measured, as exact proportion is not essential. The dose is one slice, large or small, according to the requirement of the individual.

Best Authority for Phrase.

Would-be purists in language often criticise the South for the expression "you all," but the South has the highest authority on earth for its use. Paul, in his epistle to the Philippians, wrote "you all," and no higher authority than the Bible need be looked for. Paul knew full well the strength and force of "you all."—Manufacturers' Record.

Examine Opportunity Well.

Every opportunity needs to be looked at through the glass of principle. It may mean, apart from conscience, a chance of making money or gaining social position, of grasping power; but if it does not pass muster morally, it also means loss.
